Journeyman (15) 92mins

Dir: Paddy Considine | 2017

Journeyman tells the story of boxing champion Matty Burton (Paddy Considine). At the end of his career he knows that he must make his money and get out of the game, to secure a future with his wife and daughter. After a titanic fight, Matty collapses after a delayed reaction to a devastating punch. Awaking from the coma, the real fight begins as he begins to piece his life back together.

You Were Never Really Here (15) 90mins

Dir: Lynne Ramsay | 2017

Scottish Writer/Director Lynne Ramsay returns with a no-holds barred, violent thriller. Joaquin Phoenix stars as a traumatised war veteran who, unafraid of violence, tracks down missing girls for a living with a no mercy approach. When a job spins out of control a conspiracy is uncovered that threatens to be his downfall.

Stop Making Sense (PG) 88mins

Dir: Jonathan Demme | 1984

Widely regarded as the best live concert film of all time! Directed by Jonathan Demme (The Silence of the Lambs), this Talking Heads concert was shot over the course of three nights at Hollywood's Pantages Theater in 1983, as the group was touring their new album Speaking in Tongues. The band raised the budget of $1.2 million budget themselves and this is our tribute to Jonathan Demme as April marks the one year anniversary of his death.

Finding Your Feet (12A) 111mins

Dir: Richard Loncraine | 2017

Imelda Staunton, Timothy Spall and Joanna Lumley star in this heart-warming comedy. When 'Lady' Sandra Abbott finds her husband of forty years having an affair she is forced to move in with her estranged sister Bif. A new lease of life, and romance, awaits when she is dragged along to the local community centre for a dance class.
